

EDEN Membership Fees (valid from 2015)

Institutions

	EUR
Institution 1 - Educational institutions with more than 20.000 students, commercial organisations	800
Institution 2 - Educational institutions with more than 4.000 students, national or international institutions, networks and associations	650
Institution 3 - Educational institutions with less than 4.000 students, non-profit, scientific, research institutions and small companies with less than 20 employees	450
Associate members (outside Europe)	300
Affiliate membership fee* born by EDEN member national associations	EUR/institution
1-5 nominated institutions	250
6-10 nominated institutions	200
10-15 nominated institutions	150
over 15 nominated institutions	100

Educational institutions, non-profit, scientific and research institutions may apply for fee reduction from European countries falling in lower-middle and upper-middle income categories according to the World Bank classification.

Individual members

100

Individuals from the above group of countries (and groups of institutions) may apply for waived membership fee.

Membership for students is free, upon presentation of proof of student status.

Institutions are entitled to nominate to NAP the following number of professionals for free of charge:

Institution 1	30 persons
Institution 2	20 persons
Institution 3 and affiliated institutions	10 persons

* National associations, wishing to nominate affiliate members (to EDEN) from among their member-institutions, are invited to contact for details the EDEN Secretariat at:

membership@eden-online.org